Monday Evening.

ized in Wilson.

scarce at that.

ville, Va., for $700.

A Memorial Association is to be organ-

Peaches $2 per bushel in Tarboro' and

THE early and late corn is said to be re-narkably promising throughout the State.

Fork interments in one hour, in the Raleigh Cemetery, last Thursday, Healthy

Brogden, Radical candidate for Con-to meet the Conservatives on the stump.

caltivated 9,000 bills of tobacco on two acres of land, and sold the crep in Dan-

District, is at home, sick, but Wm. Robinson, Esq., of Goldsboro', and John F.

YESTERDAY there was a meeting of the Stockholders of the Raleigh and Gasceiving 5,468 votes.—Raleigh Standard.

If the accounts from North Carolina are true, that State is suffering more from the State militia than she did at any time clined to take the report with a considera-of the General Government is needed.

July 20th, 1870.—Raleigh Sentinel.

Now and Then .- While Col. Mallett,

On one occasion Col. Mallett omitted to return an answer to Judge Pearson why he held a citizen who had sued out a writ of furious, and without hearing argument.

for contempt. Col. Mallett had to appear, which he did, stating he had no intention of committing a contempt, and gave his thus purged himself of contempt, he was him the body of Adolphus G. Moore, who

On Saturday, 16th inst., Judge Pearson released from the attachment.

by Kirk and his men.

ble grain of allowance. Should the ac-

THE Goldsboro' News loarns that an attempt has been made to establish a Ku-

Klux Klan in Goldsboro', by the Radicals.

N. Y. Herald.

DAVIDSON COLLEGE.

VOL. 26.

IS COLLEGIATE YEAR WILL BEGIN in the present contingency, affords some L September 8th, 1870. Annual expenses for consolation. We hope For "Bushelor of Science" there will be a three cars' course independent of Ancient Languages. this case, before our readers; we are not r g- A Catalogue, or particular information, an he had from the Rev. G. W. McPHAIL, D. D., Lib. D., Presisdent. Postofice: Davidson College, North Carolina.

CHIELOTTE FEMALE INSTITUTE. CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE 13TH ANNUAL RESSION OF THIS IN atitution commences the 80th of September, al continues until 30th June, 1871. an accomplished corps of Teachers has been mployed in all branches neually taught in first uss Female Seminaries. for circular and catalogue containing full par ultra sa to terms, &c., addresa REV. R. BUBWELL & SON.

REFERENCES : ti. W. Williams, Esq., Wilmington, N. C. Col. John D. Taylor, Sev. Mr. Sprunt, Buplin county, N. C. Dr. Henry Faison. Col. Wm. E. Hill,

WASHINGTON COLLEGE, VIRGINIA.

tation next session will begin Sept. 15th and I call June 22d. CLERK OF FACULTY, Lexington, Va. 211 $10 w

THE SONG GARDEN.

BERLEST OF MUSIC BOOKS ADAPTED to Schools of all graden. Progressively arof with each book complete in itself. By Dr. THE BONG GARBEN. First Book, For bemore with a variety of easy and pleasing THE SONG GARDER. Second Book. In 8dtion to a practical comes of Instruction, it conand a choice collection of School Music. (An- ton Railroad Company at the Company's al Sale, 25,600..... 50 contu THE SONG GARDEN. Third Book. Desides office in this city. Dr. W. J. Hawkins, and post-part on receipt of price. OLIVER elected Directors. Dr. Hawkins and Mr. ON A CO., 277 Washington Street, Boston. Mordecai were unanimously elected, re-

APPLICATION ITILL BE MADE TO BOARD OF DIREC tors of W. & W. Railroad for renowal of

First C. Bradley, lost or mislaid.

tilicate No. 1,120 for one share stock in name as ainst trading for a note made by me to a. Toper & Mulford, for eight hundred do! August 1st, 1870, as I have paid it in of have their receipt to that effect. W. J. TOLAR.

Dr. Young can be consulted on any of the asca described in his publications, at his

No. 410 Spruce street, above Fourth, Phila-

BUPLIN COUNTY, N. C.

to of a deed of trust, executed by Spaight | fifteen or twenty thousand conscripts, shall, on the 13th day of August, 1870, many of them applied to Judge Pearson promises, offer for sale to the highest bid- for relief by writ of habeas corpus, deshown as the "Rhodes Place," contain- claring that they were illegally held by This tract of Land is situated in | military rule. the best cotton growing sections of North ms, and is considered very superior Lands, tos of sale - One-half of the purchase money habeas corpus before him. The Judge was t months, the balance at the end of twelve a; to be seenred by note with approved issued an attachment against Col. Mallett tolisco money is paid.

A. G. MOSELEY, Trustee.
22-wie . Title retained until the whole of the

. Nickerson, Idg, H V. Clyde, Sherwood, Idg, N Y, the, Price, Idg, Balt, A B Shepperson & Co d Crooker, Chase, ldg Reston. Los, Barrett, die. Harriss & Howell Vanguilder, dis

STATE NEWS

Mircensbero' Female College buildings acting, in this, under the order of the by lightning, and burned down.

The same paper is informed that the bridge across the Peo Dec will be apteted before the middle of August.

One Lieutenant McNim, alias Lieut, and ". Cho. B. Jennings, alias --- Rogers, as been swindling around extensively .he was last at Hookerton, where he figled as an agent of the Freedmen's Sav-Blank. Look out for all such.

THE CASWELL PRISONERS. - From a re-Part in the Hillsboro' Recorder we extract reason for his arrest. the names of the following gentlemen. and now held by Kirk in the Court Bench who, if so insolently defied, would at Yanceyville : Dr. N. M. Roan, have hesitated a moment to sustain the Oh. John Kerr, Robert Roane, Dr. A. G. dignity of the law as embodied in his of-Janey, Yancey Jones, Capt. A. A. Mitch- fice and person, by issuing an immediate J. M. Neal, Sheriff J. C. Grifflith, F. attachment against the party, and even Hon, S. P. Hill, T. J. Womack; and in him to account. And we should regard Ried on Tuesday : Joe Fowler, Jim Wil- would not do so. hamson and Johnnie McKee, a little boy

Tas argued before His Honor, Chief are sure of it-he can't do otherwise. The Justice Pearson, again to-day, by B. F. great wonder is, that he should have hesi-Moore, Esq., for the petitioners, and Mr. tated at an, or delayed a mount their main Badger for the Executive. These ad- and almost only hope of safety was not tesses occupied the time up to 1 c'clock, withdrawn from them, and the majesty of when the matter was continued for further the law and the constitution vindicated. earing to morrow, when ex-Gov. Bragg will make an appeal in favor of law and

In the meantime the Governor's unlaw- the Standard offering $200 reward for the mob continues to make arrests and haltreat their prisoners, and insult and arrest of Benjamin Lassiter, charged with "when things come to the worst they are colored, and both of Lenoir county.

minim

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 29, 1870.

For the Journal.

THE BIGHOUSE ON THE HILL.

by a shooting match, on last Thursday. etteville to Wilmington.

THE Conservatives of Northampton county meet to morrow for the purpose of nominating a full Conservative ticket.

THE Building Committee of the R. & T R. Agricultural Association are going energetically to work in the preparation of the fair grounds. Col. Fremont, the Superintendent of the Wilmington road and the President of the Capo Fear Agricultugress from the Second District, is afraid ral Association, visited the grounds yesterday evening in company with the Com-mittee, with a view of locating a turnout JUDGE TOM SETTLE, it is said, is one of the instigators of Holden's military tyr- at that point. - Ronnoke News.

THE Messenger says: The crops on the South side of Neuse river, with the exception of all the river lands, are most promi- ward to another victory at the coming candidate for Congress from the Second are proud of their ability and integrity. Wooten, E-q., of Kinston, are canvassing Freatismon Vosal Culture, with Hinstrations, Geo. W. Mordecai, Col. S. S. Royster, J. But the Brigadier was never as interesting of the property of the contains of the contai asted to High Schools, young Ladies Semina- Geo. Little and Col. Walter Clark were Sheriff are and have been Conservative; Radicals are endeavoring by insidious attempts to divide the Conservative party, yet they must and will fail. The issue now yet they must and will fail. The issue now yet they must and will fail. The issue now yet they must and will fail. The issue now yet they must and will fail the interest of the time who have long, long since departed, memory flies back to the time wheat the books I find that if all my possessions of the foot room of his mansion. On a were sold this day they would not cover and busy finey peoples again the scene while upon the floor a quentity of news. Is not considered. But to tage the memory flies back to the time wheat the case of a progressive age are plainly visible. When we arised the construction is the floor a quentity of news. tressed friend, George W. Pegram, of throng that crowd the streets, and gaze powerful and terrible emotion.

Ward so much that I really believe that he to relate.

excuse why he had not answered. Having petitioned for a writ of habeas corpus. On Congress, Col. Alfred M. Waddeli, could open, generous hospitality. Sunday, 17th, Kirk received the order of not be with us while the Brigadier was in the Judge, and sent as an answer, that he should not obey the order, and that "such mond county, was struck a few days now, at the end of the argument, adsure the Brigadier that he can in no way do I see you now. She could not be called rupt Wilborn?" ourns the case to take "one and proba-In the meantime Mr. Moore (and those them. The people of Sampson have no similarly outraged) has been kidnapped confidence in any man who will seek to and dragged across the country from Ala- make a false impression about his oppomance to Caswell, where he is held a nent in his absence. Col. D. injured himself by attempting and insult that may be heaped upon him to leave the impression that Ool. Waddell was in favor of qualified suffrage at this time. He was told flat-footed that was not honest when he made the assernow imprisoned with Mr. Moore and the tion, and that he knew differently. The others from Alamance, and no one of them | question was put to him as an honest man and he was asked for an honest answer: the bye, the Brigadier's looks and manner the rich Mr. Edwards, some ten years on the stump impress one with the thought her senior, and a youth named that he has the coolness of an Icelander, Walter Sanders, a distant relative the lungs of a donkey and the impudence or connection, by marriage. They called man as ever senttled a political ship or cut ian paths, until at length it bursts in soul's hardened scheming" as well as any lands and bonds and was regarded as the their friends entire satisfaction, may, we the largest entire satisfaction, may, we have been a kind and indulgent hurriedly and seemed to be laboring under fusely around. All were anxious to take ton in the sweet memories of the past. At parent, I have lately observed a great great excuement. Fearing she knew not Walter by the hand, and as he passed such a time incidents the most trivial will charge in his manner. He is absent and what, she sprang to meet him. "My through the crowded rooms with his bride We have a division in the Sheriff's electory and constitute and co tion, from which Col. Dockery, the mam- we had long been strangers. A withered home as much as he was wont to do, spends has any tidings been heard of Walter?" and all, I almost envied the dog his hapmoth Radical and Brigadier General of leaf, a strip of faded ribbon that bound nearly all bis time at his office. He seems, "None, my poor child, none," said Mr. piness, Holden's militia, hopes to make a pain for perhaps the ringlets of a loved and last too, to be on terms of intimacy with Mr. Wilburne, as he gazed mournfully upon Walter and his bride, after a sojourn here one, a line traced by a hand long month. Edwards, who, for aught I know, may be her. What, then, is the matter, and why of a few months, returned to England. himself and his party in old Sampson. — ered into dust, "a little word in kindness as henorable man, but whose association do you gaze so apon me." Sit near me, Mr. Wilburn accompanied them, where Julia, and listen.

of this corrupt Congressional theatre.

Walter; "doubtless your father's anxiety mad speculations in which I engaged, I in this world of trouble and of sorrow. As I cast my eye over the faded and and abstractedness arises from some busi- still hoped that I had sufficient to meet The old house has entirely disappeared; they openly avow it on the stump, practice venerable leaves of these old-lime letters, ness transactions—a speculation in which my losses. For months past I have been its very foundations turned up to make

R. Maxwell, Esq., is doing yeoman service past, but no familiar face looks up no rapt—a beggar? Is this the result of asked your hand in marriage. What say fishly bestowed, fall away like leaves at atter what may be your disease, before you this method of correcting this report. I malico. He is a good man, a worthy re- or sufferings of these around us, so long begin to feel some degree of anxiety about and splendid misery. Twice within the Europe leaves no doubt of my utter and entrance. Sampson. Our people are pleased with cupied by an English gentleman of the lations most hazardons, but which prom- through her min', a knock at the door it,—St. Louis Republican. should not obey the order, and that such things had played out," and that he was a wild be rebuilt.

The Wadesboro' Argus learns that the Things learns that the Hold country, and that he was known that the Hold country, and that he was known the hearty support of all the Conservations of the Hold country, and that he was known the hearty support of all the Overnor. The New York Commercial tries to be very severe upon Louis Napoleon. Here the Hold country, and that he was known the hearty support of all the Hold country, and that I he Hold country, and that he was known the hearty support of all the Hold country, and Will gain by any dissension among us. If the frests of eighty winters are upon my instead of the frests of eighty winters fection - he read his answer there.

said he, handing it to Julia. "It is from here and-" my uncle's Solicitor. The old man is ill, "Nay my pretty Julia, you leave not and from his advanced age I fear his re- this room without my escort," he exclaimcovery is doubtful. He requires my pres | ed, seizing her by the arm. ence. A ship leaves this very day, within "Unhand me, sir," she exclaimed, as terrible, still I must go to him; must leave "What means this outrage?" you for a time, but will soon return, and "It means this, 'he hissed in her car. Monday morning. then"-stooping down he whispered some- "Twice have I been scorned by you, twice thing in her ear, and she hid her blushes have my offers been spurned with contempt. Now know, proud beauty, that

RATES OF ADVERTISING

1 square, of 10 lines or less, for each and ever?

Special Notices will be charged $200 persquare foreach and every insertion.

All Obituaries and private publications of every character, are charged as advertisements.

NO. 25

so No advertisement, reflecting upon private character, can, under any circumstances, le admitted.

pay the bitterness of our present separa- ness within him. His hot breath was upon broke from his grasp, and rushed towards gave way to despair. And Julia-her by a vessel bound to a foreign port. He vivid and enduring. It is true that in the swered, had told her of his hopes, his exter would return. "The saip may have the people wondered whether he would return to claim his property, which, by flicts of adverse character-in the heated her hand in his and laid her head upon not her Waiter. Ob, no, that were impossible—he would surely come back, for had looked in her brida! robes, with the bloom once more upon her cheek, and the love-

I was at the wedding, and a grand affair One evening in the month of March, as it was-the eye feasted upon the beauty of of the mension, absorbed in the bitter ner man rejoiced with the bountiful sup-"Terhaps it would," said Julia; "though recollections of the past, her father entered ply of good things that were scattered proand upon a careful examination of my while around it, on every side, the eviden-during the war. It seems hadly credible is (and they can't dedge it) "shall the with the friends of my youthful days. The while upon the floor a quantity of news- largest creditor is Mr. Edwards; you alienation of friends who basked in the during the war. It seems hadly credible is (and they can't dodge it) "shall the with the inends of my youth—where are they? I a peaceful State when peace is general throughout the country, and we feel inshould immortalize my old and now dis- echo is returned. I move among the busy ashy paleness of his face betokened some vanced to carry on my operations. He cipients of many acts of kindness which came to me this day and spoke of you; should have been most gratefully rememcounts be true, however, the interference Harnet county. Gur Commoner, James wistfully at these that jostle and larry bered, because so cheerfully and unselfor the Conservative cause. Makes a neat, short speech, a plain practical man of short speech, a plain practical man of short to place the cowd. Around short speech, a plain practical man of short to place the cowd. Around short to place the cowd. Around short to place the cowd to Making the designed instruction for married persons or those about to be married persons or the post. Although some standards have been circulated against him about to be married persons or those about to be married persons or the feel for that purpose by direct with the persons of the past. They at least are our Representative. Although some standards the bedding to make the feel from the purpose by direct with the persons of the past. They at least are our Representative. Although some standards the bedding to make the feel from the purpose by direct with the post of the past. They at least are our Representative. Although some standards the bedding to make the feel that your designation and provention of of dispring. It is a most desolate thing to feel that your description and provention of of signing. It is a most desolate thing to feel that your destination and provention of of dispring. It is a most desolate thing to feel that your destination and provention of of signing and an intruster in the land of your fathous upon the cold charmed the power of the least are our repay him? Father with William power, and the provention of the past. They at least are our repay him? Father with William power, and they seem circulated against him about the power of the past. They at least are our standard in the provention of the past. They at least are our standard rest to my limbs, or slumber to my eyelids, on the Hill."

A Mad Dog in a Drawing-room, this method of correcting this report. I have neither given nor promised to give have neither given nor promised to give and foreign—who adhave neither given nor promised to give have no have no long at the letters on the table. W. C. Troy, our honored candidate for have neither given nor promised to give have no have no long at the letters on the table. With his proposals; my heart lies buried have neither given nor promised to give have Mr. J. J. Daley, of the firm of Daley & liberated upon no such grounds, but upon giving a bond for my appearance and keeping the peace prescribed by military k liberated upon no such grounds, but upon the right man in the right place. Modest coveted, and sinued, is in our grasp, we link myself with this man whom I loathe— Pine street between Ewing and Garrison tinged health, "Mr. Wilburn, he added," claimed her father, folding her in his arms. servants. It found its way into the draw-I have called this evening upon a matter "I did but try thee, Let him do his ing-room, and Mr. Daley, being informed most vital to my happiness. I have long worst; with honest industry, and a firm by the girls of its whereabout, proceeded leved your daughter, and to day she has reliance upon that Providence who never with a broom in his hand to drive it out. blessed me with the assurance that my affection is returned. My uncle, whose sole shall prosper. I will carry him your an- was in a place where the gentleman did heir I am, and who loves me as a sou, possesses large estates; are you willing to rations for our remarkal, for we must seek on him, biting him on the leg. A terrible (Ward) would be very glad to shake off the ugly Porter and get his Redical friends extremity of the town, and, indeed, at the plish to gild her pathway through life, will that a true and loving heart can accomplish to gild her pathway through life, will the plant of the lower that I would be very glad to shake off the lower than I would be very glad to shake off the lower than trust your daughter's happiness with me? a more humble abode. And now, good struggle then enened between Mr. Daley to vote for Troy and Ward. Long may time it was built, entirely out of the be my first and last, and only thought to with the labors of the day (for she had been a heap, Mr. Daley invariably falling among Troy wave, for he is a trump in a came corporate limits of the town, upon a make her happy—the chief object of my busily engaged preparing for their re- them. In the melee the mad dog seized a existence.

"Young man," said Mr. Wilburn, awaiting her father's return. The shades verely. Further disaster was prevented by But here he is wrong, and has no right thus to deceive the people, for his speeches that years and flatly contradict his medest assertion and fully prove that he can not only work, but that he can likewise talk and talk well.

The was lavished in its contradict his medest assertion and all that taste or fancy could suggest, or wealth processes, was lavished in its contradict him (which to frequently engulf the unwary) that he can likewise talk and talk well.

The was lavished in its contradict his medest assertion and the flith." It was built in the finest style, and all that taste or fancy could suggest, or wealth processes, was lavished in its contradict him (which too frequently engulf the unwary) that he can likewise talk and talk well.

The said Air. Wilburn, a waiting her latner's return. The sandes was prevented by the time of evening had deepend into night,—the the timely arrival of a policeman, who of evening had deepend into night,—the the timely arrival of a policeman, who of evening had deepend into night,—the wind whistled and howled around the ball in torrents, and the cold March wind whistled and howled around the house, as if exulting in her misery. A think christian and all that taste or fancy could suggest, which too frequently engulf the unwary feeling of utter loneliness and desolation, allowed the wounded gentleman. When we elect him (which we will as struction. A thick shrubbery almost comes) surely do as the August election comes) we feel that we will be as proud of him as we feel that the one in the feel that the one in the feel that the one is and confiding. I know you, however, Wall and confiding will be as proud of him as we feel that we will be as proud of him as we feel that we will be as proud of him as we feel that we will be as proud of him as we fee On Saturday, 16th inst., Judge Pearson our Senator as we are now of him as our bouse, flowers bloomed and biossomed, more willingly trust the happiness of my wildered her. She fancied there were out and cauterized, and the patient is now filling the air with richest perfume. It was child. But it is my duty to say to you voices in the wind as it shricked at the doing as well as can be expected. The We regret that our respected candidate for the abode of wealth and refinement, and that information received this day from casements as if cade avoring to force an encounter with the dog was a most ex Sampson. Our people are pleased with support by an Regular part by an Regular process the rest by the lations must be support by an Regular process the rest by the lations must be rest by the lations and the lations must be rest by the lations are rest by the lations must be rest by the lations and the lations are rest by the lations and the lations must be rest by the lations and the lations are rest by the lations are rest by the lations and the lations are rest by th bly two days to consider what he will do!" come between us, nor shall he profit by beautiful, for there was something about "What is wealth," exclaimed Wal- would brave sit dangers for one assurance Beyound the Potomac, where fields of wayher countenance an air somewhat of gravi- sions, in comparison to the love of "No more sir," I will bear no more. - banks of the noble river where the farmer ty. Her eyes were black, and when animated, they sperkled and danced like twinkling stars. Her forehead was full my means will be most ample; but should character. Twice have you had my answer through the lovely valleys, now so transport. and projected a little, indicating genius of my hopes and expectations prove false, to your proposals, and you but heap in quil, where the patient husbandman gatha high order, and her hair, which was a and I be compelled to daily toil for daily suit apon insuit by thus foreing yourself ers the fruits of his industry, and up and down those fertile fields these hypocrites around her nock and shoulders in beauti- and lighten every labor, -will nerve my stay and hear me," exclaimed Ed- will lead flereo squadrons to scenes of earful contrast with the dazzling whiteness of arm and give fresh strength to struggle wards, stung by her remarks, "I have long nage and destruction. To the pride and with the world." What say you, Julia? loved you, this world is a blank to me comity of man thousands of human lives Do you believe that Col. Waddell is in Young, witty and accomplished suitors His arm encircled her waist—her head without your presence. Your father is in are about to be offered up as a sacrifice. favor of qualified suffrages." He dodged for her hand were numerous. Among rested upon his shoulder—and as he gazed my power; consent to be mine, and I re- To satisfy thirsty ambition oceans of hulike a demagogue; he failed to answer. By others who worshiped at her shrine, were upon her upturned face, beaming with at lease him from his obligations. Every lux- man blood are to flow. To propitiate inpury that wealth can purchase shall be tolerant party spirit the tears of widows The next morning, while Julia was busi- yours -your slightest thought or wish be and orphans will alone suffice. What a ly engaged with her father arranging his gratified ere the desire be expressed .- pitiable commentary on earthly justice, papers. Walter barst suddenly into the What say you?" There was a wild glare that while the marderer who takes but one room in great excitement, holding an open in his eye that startled and atarmed her. | life surrenders his own upon the gallows. "Let me pass sir;" and she moved to the assassin of thousands is received as a "I have this moment received this," wards the door. "My father will soon be here and clothed in purple and fine lin-

> Thirty-seven cases of sunstroke occurred at New York Monday -seven fatal.

The body of Charles Sontell, who was political trickster who now struts the stage Nabob of the place. He had but few an hour, and though the separation is most she struggled violently to release herself. drowned in front of the United States Hotel, at Long Branch, on Sunday, was found

> It is stated that honest old Joe Lane, o Oregon, is a candidate for the United States Senate. The Democracy of Oregon might go farther in the selection of a Senator and fare worse.

On Sunday evening, the 17th inst, at the residence of his daughter, Clarissa Bartisld, in Duplin county, THEOPHILUS BARFIELD, agod certain to mend," is the old adage, and Bushy Head, Chief of the Cherokee Indians, passed Weldon, on Thursday, going South from Washington. We hope, hereafter, to be able to lay the substance of the arguments of counsel in

The McLean Fire Company, of Fayette ville, celebrated their Fourth Anniversary, able to do so at present .- Raleigh Sentinel The Eagle of Wednesday last, reached us last night, which is three days from Fay-

MR. HENRY MALONE, of Caswell county, From Sampson County Our Gallant Murphy and Troy Sampson for Waddell ... Dockery on the Stump-life Pointenl Trickery, &co., &c.

election, such as our friends abroad will HAMPAS CORPUS.—The habeas corpus case Mr. Moore and the others before him—we soul's hardened scheming" as well as any h -1, but what he would seenre it. OLDEN TIME. In run maging over an old desk, covered legal profession. He was a genial fellow, sad duties to his uncle, and arranging his blow from without buried it from its with dust and cobwebs, I stambled upon always amiable, with a smile and a kind large estate as expeditiously as possible, hinges, and a well known from bounded set out on his return. He had written to into the room and caught her in his arms andisturbed and forgotten for I know not tures, and never so happy as when doing Julia, informing her of the day he should as she feel fainting to the floor. how many years. They are lying on the something for others. He was, of course, sail, and when his arrival might be expect. Edwards stayed not to ascertain who the table before me while I write, and as I gaze a general favorite; the old esteemed him ed, but weeks passed, and months, and no intruder was, but dashing through one of and the writing, dim with age and almost for his good qualities of head and heart, Walter came. At last the news that the the windows, planged headlong to the liegible, the memories of other days are and the young leved him dearly, because vessel in which he had sailed had been ground, and disappeared in the darkness. clustering around my heart and dimming he joined in all their youthful sports with found abandoned; no clue to the fate of My story is soon ended. Walter, for it was my eyes with moisture. Scenes long as much hilarity as the youngest of them any who were on board, and then hope he, had been saved and taken from the wreck back upon my mird in all their former Though intending to remain but a short young affections crushed in their opening had been months upon the ocean; had but brightness, and I almost fancy that the time, weeks had passed, and months, and bloom; her topes blasted and destroyed; just arrived that night, and was hurrying inanimate paper before me is gazing wist- still be lingered. He had met Julia Wil- the lustre from hereye had fied; the bloom up, despite the tempest, when the well fully in my face, and whispering in my car born; her dark eye had looked into his, had left her che k, but still in her distress known voice of Julia, in her cry for help. of the days that are past and the friends and he was fascinated. He loved—loved she was most beautiful. She moved about, reached his ear, long since departed.

ions are for a time obscured or forgotten, out they are never lost. As we advance hill which was the goal of our ambition, inferming him." and begin our descent to that unknown and begin our descent to that unknown and the best to go to Julia was sitting alone in the front room Wilmington there assembled, and the in-Con. L. W. Humphrey, Conservative be proud of. The candidates of the Con- returns," our thoughts fly backward bim at once?" servative party fight manfally and give to to the scores of our youth and Treatise on Vocal Culture, with Hinstrations, Geo. W. Mordecai, Col. S. S. Royster, J. But the Brigadier was never as much mis- spoken, a motion or a tear"--will evoke I dislike, pay, almost dread."

DR. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce street, Col. Kirk because I had given information and fearless man he courts investigation, they are forgotten. Such is life. We toil when he had last heard from him.

old Sampson. With a look that seems to I gat down to meation a little incident that say, "I beg your pardon if I hurt your occurred many years ago, in the "Big feelings," he does say some of the sharp- House on the Hill," as it was called in during the late war, commanded some est things, make more home thrusts and those days, and which the sight of these sting his opponents neater to the quick letters had brought vividly to my mind, than any man I have heard speak for a for the writers of these letters were the long time. He demoralized the candidate | principal actors in the incident I am about the ugly Porter and get his Radical friends extremity of the town, and, indeed, at the paign. With his modest air he says he is high and almost barren rand hill, existence, not a talking man, but a working man. nour the corner of Ann and Third streets, her complexion.

Edwards had large postessions in houses, friends, however, for his character was not In Col. Waddell we have a man to whom one to excite esteem or regard in the minds the gentleman in social converse or on the tune by means sometimes most question. in his encircling arms. hustings, we can appeal to the voters of able. Unfeeling and avaricious, the cardithe law and the constitution vindicated.

Raleigh Sentinel.

Gov. Holden issues a proclamation in the Standard offering $200 reward for the Standard offering $200 reward for the the Standard offering $200 reward for the Standard offering $20 from the canvass of 1868, wrought upon his command, as though he was on the your leaving; how lonely and desolate all power on earth can now thwart my pur-chance the ghost of a sixpence even into mess of meeting again will more than re- sin and desire were aroused almost to mad-Walter was an orphan, had left England tion. I will harry back at the earliest post her cheek, and his eye flashed with a where his nucle resided, and on whom he sible moment, to claim the fulfillment of light unnatural and flendish. was dependent, and had arrived in Wilming your roomise. Time preuses," he added, With a cry for help that could be heard ton a few months previous to the opening "and I must away;" one long embrace, and above the roaring of the tempest, she of my story, on a visit to a relation, a he was gone. prominent and respected member of the Waiter arrived in time to pay the last the door, but ere she reached it a powerful with all the fervor, the madness of youth. the stadow of her former self, for "hope What more need be told. How that Mr. The impressions made upon the mind in In their mornight walks he had whise deferred had made be learned had made to learn sick," still, Wilburn was released that night from jall; our youthful days are always the most pered sofily in her ear, and she had an however believing, such hoping that Wal- how Edwards never was again seen, and

"But my father, Walter-his consent he not promised." must be obtained, and though I see no Time, which regards neither joys or sor- light in her eye. Are not all these, and Mr. Editor :- The campaign is waxing in years and success crowns our exer- reason why he thenld object, still I know rows, passed on. A year had chapsed since more to be found in old, musty volumes warm in old Sampson, and we look for- tious when we reach the summit of that not why, but i abaost dread the idea of Walter sai elon his return, and all hope of the "Cape Fear Recorder?" of his safety tad vanished. of will see him this very evening, my

it in private, and although the cowardly filled with expressions of esteom from business, and upon a careful examination of my while around it on every side the evident good sense, but a working man, whose of forts will tell for the cause.

Item and about me, on every side, the young have so long labored, and the gay are hurrying on with joyous the scenes of our youth and the memo-Dr. C. T. Marphy, whose yeeman of steps and happy hearts, as if there were like seems of our youth and the memo-Riux Klan in Goldsboro', by the Kadicals.

a gentleman by the name of W. L. Weston, of Winston, Granville county, having ton, or with the bright recollections of the past. They at least are our Radical cowers before the Doctor's well- kindness and affection. They are gone, meet them, and, embracing his daughter, you left desolate and alone." Radical cowers before the Doctor's wellpainted with; still it is a book that must ported on the streets in Raleigh that I had directed, severe, yet merited rebuke and characterized, oh, so many years agolocked up and not lie about the house. It will been liberated from my confinement by flat contradiction. Like an house and able other generations have spring up, and toil my fingers to the bone—will give no that joyous wedding at the "Big House to the bone of the property of the bone of the bo as to crimes committed in Alamanco involving the guilt of other parties. I take by a misunderstanding of the truth or by the mouth, I know not what, that gave to ter, "broad lands or large posses of affection from those sweet lips." dark brown, fell in lexeriant ringlets bread, my own dear Julia will cheer me on upon my privacy. Let me pass sir."

letter in his hand.

righten women and children. Well, killing a boy names Alex. Croom, both the Brigadier until he now made a telerative speech.

When things come to the worst they are colored, and both of Lenoir county.

The turbulent and stormy elements of S7 years.

prisoner, subject to all the inconvenience Judge Kerr and fifteen other good and respectable citizens of Caswell county, are has seen the legal warrant or knows the There is not a Judge on the English A Wiley, W. B. Bowe, Bazley Graves, leading the posse, if necessary, to bring demographs schooled in description of the Devil. Trained in all the arts of a leach other cousin, and it is wonderful how Eddition to these the following were ar- any Judge a curse to any country who well be said to be the following were arhesitates in this matter. He will ultimate- a political throat," for with a "face formed the full blaze of Hymen's torch.

> we could point with pride as our represen- of those around him. Shrewd, calculattative, dignified and manly in his bearing, ing, unscrupulous, he had amassed a for-